Students
Southeastern Community College
Whiteville, North Carolina 28472

Dear Students:

The college experience is full of memories, many of them happy ones. We believe that this first yearbook will be a source of immediate pleasure and a treasured possession in the years to come as it reminds us of people, places and events that we want to remember.

Southeastern is already a fine institution and I believe that in the coming years the successive manuals will reflect the progress and growth of a truly excellent college.

Cordially,

W. T. Cottingham
